President's Message

As the days go by we are getting closer to the holiday season. To those who are having Dec. 16th dinners, I d like to ask the chairman to convey my best wishes to the members and friends attending.

To all of the members who have not contributed to the memorial fund I have a suggestion. Why not make it a Christmas gift by sending Doug Coffey a check for the memorial fund, that is what I intend to do.

Over the Labor Day week end I attended the Artillery Reunion at Hershey Park, Pa. As usual they had a very fine turnout, and the whole family really enjoyed themselves. Gen. McMahon was busy signing up members for the Div. Assn.

Up until this time I have heard nothing from any of the officers (except the Cub Ed.) so there is very little for me to report.

In closing may I wish you and your families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

CLAYTON F. RARICK

PLEASE!!!

Keep us informed of any change in address. Much mail is returned to us which costs us money and you don't receive our communication.

Editor's Notes

The officers and board of directors extend to all those Greetings of the Holiday Season. May the days for you be filled with Joy. Our Chaplain in his message brings us the Truth of the Holiday Season.

As we look to the New Year, may we ask you as we have for the past years, that our division association be included in your New Year's resolution. A few minutes a week to write a note for the "Cub" and a phone call or note to a former 106 er to get him back in the fold. The association does need your help.

Have had contact with Bob Kelly and John Loveless regarding our Corporation status. We have paid our fee to May 1, 1959 to the Corporation Trust, which takes care of our legal requirements as a corporation in Washington, D. C. By the time this expires we hope to be re-incorporated in another state, which will either reduce or eliminate the legal fee.

Doug Coffey informed me that the letter he sent to Belgium informing them of our decision to proceed with the memorial was lost in the mails and therefore, he is unable to report anything definite for this Cub. He reminds us all we still need contributions to our Memorial fund to complete this project plus that of taking care of any requests for help.

Al Dunbar wrote that Ben Hagman's son, Larry was in Philadelphia in the play "Comes a Day." Received good reviews.

Thanks to all who sent in items for this Cub.

NEW JERSEY

We had our picnic but what a day we picked. It was nice till about noon then it rained off and on the rest of the day. However, we had a good turnout. 50 men, women and children. I have had a room fixed up in the cellar so most of the gang were there. The kids were in and out as it was warm even with the rain.

We are going to have our Dec. 16th dinner at the Swiss Chalet in Rochelle Park, New Jersey.

ADJUTANT'S MESSAGE

I have $5.00 in dues that I can't account for. I guess I am allowed a mistake or two taking over this job which was plain "Greek" to me. Any suggestions as to how to find this unfortunate soul. I would like to have us change our mailing service from commercial mailing in Albany, N. Y., to some area where we have a few members, this would permit us to make direct contact in keeping our mailing list up to date.

HERSHEY PARK

The 6th annual reunion of this fine outfit, Service Btry. 592 FA, initiated by Emil Solecki and Tom Dorosky was held on Sunday, August 31, 1958 at Hershey Park, Penna. It is truly a family affair. While the parents sit around and eat and reminisce, the children have the time of their lives in the amusement park, adjoining the picnic area. One of the "first-timers" to a reunion was James Malesky accompanied by his wife and son from Greensburg, Penna. He was a Lt. in the Btry. during W.W.2. He joined the Division Assn. and promises to make all future reunions. Other members of the Battery attending were Emil and Ethel Solecki and 2 children Sparta, N. J.; Tom and Alice Dorosky and children from Trucksville, Charlie and Daisy Walsh, Haddonfield, N. J., accompanied by Mrs. Walsh's sister and her husband; Reed and Adrian Trail; Tom and Mary Fox and 2 children, Greencastle, Penna.; Frank and Theresa Maloney 2 children, Philadelphia, Penna.; Michael and Mrs. Sgrignoli, Harrisburg, Pa.; John and Louise Eyler and 1 child, Waynesboro, Penna.

GUESTS: National President, Clayt and Mrs. Rarick, 2 children, Blandon, Pa.; John Loveless, National Chaplain and Kay Loveless, National President, Ladies Auxiliary and 1 child, Baltimore, Md.; John and Mrs. Gallagher and 2 children, Temple, Penna. They were accompanied by Mrs. Gallagher's mother, Mrs. Helen Nein; Leo and Wilda McMahon and 2 children, Middletown, Pa.

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Change of color and the fall of leaves, the withering of vegetation, the cooling of the atmosphere, the shortening of the days, all herald the coming of winter, the close of the old year and the beginning of the new.

Yet, before the dreary days take over completely to reign until Spring, we experience the joyous times of two great festivals.

Hanukkah with its lights, its feasts, its gifts, its games, its hours of fellowship, thrills the imaginations and the hearts of those who partake of the pleasures of those days.

Christmas with its feverish preparations, the excitement of things hoped for, the decorations, the multiplicity of gifts, the hearty greetings, the awe and mystery of the birth of a helpless babe, fills the waking thoughts and brightens the dreams of those who name the name of the Christ.

And inbetween times, thousands recall the dank, dark, cold days and bitter, lonely nights they spent in the Ardennes fourteen years ago.

But there is more; we cannot, we dare not, stop.

The pleasures of Hanukkah, in truth, will be hollow if they are not concluded with a dedication of life in service to the Lord as was the altar dedicated long ago as the place for the sacrifices of a grateful people.

The joys of Christmas, verily, will be empty if they do not give life and depth to a sincere resolve to follow in the Way of the Babe of Bethlehem.

So we, all being children of the Most High, must strive to do His Will as He reveals it to us, and praise Him for His goodness and mercy unto us.

"Teach me thy way, O Lord, that I may walk in thy truth."

—Psalm 86:11 106th Infantry Div. Asso. John T. Loveless, Jr. Chaplain

A NARROW BASE

The registration at the Reunion in Philadelphia in July, 1958 showed an attendance of 61 men, 43 ladies and 18 young people. In spite of this relatively small attendance, the Reunion Committee were fortunate enough to come out in the black and those present appeared to have a good time. The men attending represented somewhat less than 25% of the total dues paying membership at the time of the reunion. Certainly we are operating from a very narrow base, both in total membership and in attendance at the annual convention. It is a real tribute to the officers we elect each year and to the reunion committees, who volunteer two years in advance of the reunion, that we have been able to accomplish so much.

The Association voted in Philadelphia that a list of the approximately 1,200 expired members* be published and distributed with a future issue of the CUB, so that it may be used by active members in membership promotion work. When it is received, we urge that all members contact friends on the list, get them back in, and unite with Membership Chairman Dick Nethers in expanding our base and stimulating attendance at reunions.

* Dick DeHerr to send Major Moulds list of names he will have prepared for distribution thru CUB.

Letters to Editor

D. Price, United Nations Expert PO Box 1143, Cairo, Egypt, UAR 16 October 1958

Mr. John Gallagher 4003 Frances St. Temple, Penna., U.S.A.

Dear John,

Your postcard of August 1 reached me this week, forwarded from my Loudonville address. I'm over here with United Nations, in the capacity of an international civil servant rather than as a traveling American, and I can't write anything for publication by anyone. However, I'm sure that a news item in the CUB about my present whereabouts would be perfectly okay.

I am working for the Institute of Public Administration in Cairo. It is a part of the government of the United Arab Republic, and is jointly sponsored by United Nations as a part of the U. N. technical assistance program to help countries to improve their civil government administrative programs. I am teaching groups of government employees and working on specific administrative problems involving the organization and methods of government programs here. I will be here for at least one year, and am accompanied by my wife (Audrey) and two children (Bobby, 8, and Janet, 5). We have a rented house in a suburb, and the children are going to school here. The people are wonderfully friendly and cooperative, and my work is plentiful and very challenging. The climate is just fine-warm days, but not uncomfortably hot, and cool, pleasant evenings and nights. A breeze is usually blowing, and every day is sunny. Rain is very rare-the cars don't even come equipped with windshield wipers. My hours of work are 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., six days a week, and 5:00 to about 7:30 p.m. five days a week. The long lunch hours are for "siesta," but I prefer to spend them playing tennis. I am learning to speak Arabic, but it is a difficult language for an American to learn, and my students are much better in English and French than I will be in Arabic. We have seen most of the usual tourist sights-the pyramids (visible from our house), the museums and mosques, Old Cairo, the Nile at flood season, the Nile boats, camels, the zoo and an elephant ride, etc. But I find that the people are far more interesting than the sights. We have deliberately stayed out of the social-circle American colony, and are making our friends among the Egyptians. All in all, it is quite a wonderful experience and we are enjoying ourselves thoroughly.

Anything in the above paragraph could be printed. My views on American foreign policy could not be printed now—I am very favorably impressed with the way that the U.A.R. is moving ahead, and I don't think that the American press gives the picture as it actually is.

Best regards, DAVID S. PRICE

Note to Censor: The CUB is an American magazine published by the 106th Infantry Division Association, Inc. It goes to a few hundred veterans of that army unit, and Mr. Gallagher, the editor, asked if I could send him a note from Egypt for publica-

I am sure Dave will enjoy a note from his friends.—Ed.
Dear John:

Things here are quite the same. We are very busy getting set for the deer hunting season. This is one of the best deer counties in upper Michigan.

As you know, we have 16 hunters board and room with us for the season and it is a time for fun and gaiety. The first Saturday of the season, our American Legion Post holds a Hunters' Ball in the local hall and everyone comes in their red hunting clothes.

All small businesses close the first week, that is other than the eating and drinking places.

We heard from John Kraljic of H Co. lives in Bethpage, N.Y. He was at Philly and he and his family really had a good time. I will send pictures he sent later.

Ringa, the undertaker from Chicago, and former officer with H-424 will be up for the deer season again and we always have a bull session.

Our business has been very good. Sometimes we are too busy, but that is the way it has to be.

Say "Hello" to all the gang and all you "H" Co. men that read this, make your plans now for Chicago next July, you have to plan ahead for these things, so let's go Chicago in 1959.

Cliff Perras

Dear John:

Larry and Jeanne Walden graciously offered to assist in every way possible towards setting the stage for our Chicago reunion in the last week of July, 1959. All offers will be gracefully honored-accepted and etc. from all those in the windy city area.

I cornered Bill French for his Five (5) Spot. I am out to corner at least five more men before January 1.

Jack Gillespie

Good work, Jack.

TRAVEL

Shirley and I have discovered the drawing appeal of those wonderful often talked about, dreamt about and photographed Hawaiian Islands to a point where one says, "Is is true: Hawaii to be a garden spot of the world?" From two people just returned: "Save your money (???). It's the garden-spot and more. A trip over there is the long sought end of the rainbow.

Frankly, in later years when all the youngsters have been given the educational push to a world of their own, the ole 106th should bank on having a vacation reunion on one of the islands of Hawaii. Our new found friends in the airlines promised us that we shall be flying from Chicago to Honolulu right after breakfast and arrive in time for cocktails and a well done steak served before five that afternoon in the Hawaiian Village Hotel. Just think of having our then ten (10) minute business meeting out under the palm trees sipping on a cool rum catamaran* scented with a gardenia crested atop this polynesian drink. Such an island paradise does wonders for better realization of natures gifts to man.

I might mention here that it is the intent of these two fortunate young travelers to bypass usual winter excursions to southern Florida from now on; saving up those extra years for a return and longer stay at the then fiftieth (50th) state in the union. We hope that our friends from the 106th will be among those many couples heading there at the same time.

They say that every cause has its effect: we had ours in that being sent with eight other lumbermen to Las Vegas convention was the cause, the Hawaiian leg the effect. We spent three exciting and exhausting days as number one stop at this gambling and entertainment center of the world. To help Shirley and yours truly to an even better send off, this same wonderful group of people came on over to San Francisco for a really complete physically exhausting finish to our first week of travel. With eight hours of complete and enforced rest in the stratosphere, twenty thousand feet above the Pacific, coupled with about eight crystal clear champagnes, those pyramid styled formations grew quickly out of the flatness of the Pacific horizon. Oddly enough, these two factors, rest and spirits, treat one to a much more deeper appreciation of the sites, color, aroma and sensations cast over the "Malihini".

In bygone years, we both have been accused of being extroverts, which on this location only proved complete enjoyment of their people best came via extroversion. We had the privilege of meeting and conversing with men and women traveling from every corner of the world. This crossroads of the Pacific spelled out that unknown something that all were on a common ground to exchange the time of day and converse at length on one national's thoughts with that of another or many others. We, for one, can further appreciate the sage advice that travel is man's best teacher.

Among the many we met and enjoyed memorable hours were people from China, Australia, Holland, England, Japan and the islands themselves. One party we did telephone but unable to arrange a meeting was with Major Alan Jones, familiar to those other than men of 423rd, as the son of our Major General Alan Jones.

Gracing the lower end of Waikiki Beach is the new, impressive and unbelievably setting called Hawaiian Village. This uncopied resort enterprise is the work of one Henry Kaiser and Company. As he did in all his endeavors: build only the best and the largest known at that time. His Village Hotel with eight hundred industrious helpers, gave its guest service far and beyond any mainland plant known to this writer. One unique flavor throughout the Village is the wide-spread use of the color pink. The explanation for this seemingly over application is that Mr. Kaiser has always felt that to enjoy one's self "he's got to be in the pink".

After too few days of stay, our next scheduled move through the southwestern part of the United States came as unwanted as the wintertime guard duty in the Ardennes forest. One very definite conclusion that Shirley and I drew was that we are coming back as mentioned earlier in my comments.

Frankly, my time spent in writing this short resume of this portion of our journey was the hope that someone or a group of someones would be finally prompted into breaking away onto a similar trip for themselves. All too many times, if you'd only look, a great many folks have their minds convinced that they "just can t" get away, even just down to the downtown hotel for a weekend of rest. All you have to do is look around the Hawaiian Village like we did and see the number of folks incapacitated in one way or another to a point where the expense of inability to enjoy the area is immeasurable. How I got off on this tangent-I really am not sure: except maybe to remind ourselves to count our blessings, using them to their fullest capacity.

Regards to all those who plodded along through these lines of reminiscence for two lucky people—Shirley and Jack Gillespie. May we see you one and all in Chicago this coming summer.
