Here's what has been happening in the Association....

Our membership on this date, January 25, 1992, stands at 1,547. The 45th Annual Reunion at Pittsburgh should be one with a record attendance.

Joseph Maloney, Chairman of our 1992 Reunion (412-335-6104), advises us the dates of the reunion are August 27, 28, 29, 30, 1992. The VISTA HOTEL, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania will welcome early arrivals at convention rates. By the time you read this, the registration forms for the 1992 Reunion will be in the mail. Before getting too excited about the registration fee, look at what it covers. Previously, we have stated a registration fee with optional entertainment add-ons. This year, the fee includes almost all entertainment. It is equal to what you spent in prior years for registration and add-ons. Please make your reservation promptly upon receipt of the forms. There are several commitments which the Reunion Committee Chairman must make prior to the commencement of the reunion. All involve substantial sums of money. The desire is to make the commitments as accurate as possible. If we over-estimate, we are forced to pay for the no-shows.

Your standing committees are continuing their work on your behalf. The Nomination Committee, chaired by Edward Prewett (510-634-3082) is putting together a slate of officers to be voted on in August. Frank Trautman, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee (216-247-8416) and his committee are busy on scholarship awards. Dr. John Robb, Chairman of the Memorial Committee (814-333-6364), is in contact with the people at St. Vith regarding the memorial there. He is also abreast of the Camp Atterbury Memorial and its planned dedication on August 15. Joseph Massey, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee (205-681-1701), will provide the resolutions to be voted upon by you.

Please make such contributions as you can towards the completion of the 106th Division Camp Atterbury Memorial. Checks payable to Camp Atterbury Veterans Memorial Association should be sent to Dr. John Robb, 238 Devore Drive, Meadville, PA 16335. See Memorial pictures and article on on page 40 of this CUB.

I am looking forward to seeing you in Pittsburgh.

As we look back across the sands of time, we see footprints....

Reverend Ewell C. Black Jr., Chaplain 106th Infantry Division Association 212 Ridge St., Bishopville, SC 29010 $\frac{1}{4}$ 803-484-6861

We were returning home from spending Christmas in Atlanta with our children, at the gas station in Augusta the man in the car ahead said "I looked at your license plate and know that you are in a much better place than you were forty-seven years ago." He had looked at my 106th plate and seen the "Battle of the Bulge" on it.

Oddly, this was the second time within a week that someone had reminded me of how much better off I was at Christmas 1991 than I had been forty-seven years ago. Neither of these people knew that in the Christmas Season of 1944 I was a P.O.W. in Germany. Both were referring to the fact that in that long ago Christmas I had been involved with thousands of others fighting in the cold of Germany in what we know now as The Battle of the Bulge. As I drove away from the gas station, in Augusta, resuming our trip back to Bishopville, the words of both these people stirred my memories. Not just memories of the Christmas Season of 1944, but of the many Christmas Seasons since.

As I drove along thinking about these things, I couldn't help reflect on how much better off all us 106ers had been over the span of those forty-seven years. I know that we have all experienced some tough times over the period of years, but how fortunate all of us have survived the years in between.

As I looked back over my own life I was reminded of some lines from the poem Footprints. The author is looking back across the years which stretch behind, like a sandy beach. As he or she looks back it is noted that while much of the journey through life shows two sets of footprints, there are times when there is only a single set. Bothered by what is seen, the author speaks out to God thusly, "Lord, you said that you would walk with me all the way, but I notice that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why you'd leave me when I needed you most." The Lord replied, "During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

I couldn't help but wonder how many of us looking back would see many times when there was only the one set of footprints in our lives. I venture to say that one of those times would have been during those dark days of the Christmas Season in 1944.

"Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me;" (Psalm 23:4a)

May our God continue to walk with each of us throughout 1992, carrying us on his shoulders now, as I am certain he did then, when the going gets too hard for us to make it without his extra special help.

Third & FINAL NOTICE!!!

New Mail Address - EDITOR

John P. Kline, CUB editor 5401 U. 147th St. West Apple Valley, MN 55124

I have closed the P.O. Box formerly listed on the inside cover of the CUB.

I am still getting mail through my Post Office Box address. Please make a note of the new address. It also appears on the inside cover of each CUB.

To you gracious contributors:

All contributions of material are appreciated. Due to space, and time of year when other matters must be published, it is impossible for me to place each and every diary, story, photo in the CUB.

If your article does not appear it is not because the material was poor. It is just a matter of space and time.

Some material received is many pages long. Each page of the CUB uses approximately 450-500 words. If there are pictures, then they increase the total amount of space available. You might keep that in mind when you compose a story.

You might ask - what is my priority. There are certain "standard" items that are in each CUB. The cover is chosen to fit the time of year, or the mood of a story within the CUB. The inside cover is "boiler-plate" material of corporation officers and addresses. The president's and chaplain's message take the first two pages. Next in importance is the announcement of "New Members." for that's what the CUB is about, to bring former comrades together.

Then comes our regular contributors, like Dan Bied, Geo Levine, Dale Carver.

If I have a "Feature Story" like photos and a story of revisiting Europe etc., then I try to fit that in.

From the editor's outpost....

The Mail Bag is used as a flexible scale. If I have too much material I trim it. I left 8 pages of Mail Bag out of the last issue, and hardly got any new Mail Bag material in this issue.

Many of you do not realize it, but in some years past, The CUB was down in size from four to twenty-six pages, depending on the year. The editor's of the past did a fantastic job with little material. I have not had the scourge of "not having enough material."

Thanks for your patience. If I have material that you want back, let me know. Better yet, write a message, with your name and address right on the material. I have missed some material because there was no indication on the material as to who owned it. The CUB editor always assumes that any material he receives becomes Association property. unless otherwise stated. Material of "historical value" is passed on to our Historian, Sherod Collins after it is used in the CUB.

The 106th Prepared Me . . . for the Rest of My Life

by Dan Bied, 422/A 151 Holiday Terrace West Burlington, IA 52655

My routine, at age 66, includes an hour of walking each morning at an enclosed shopping mall near our home. I've been doing this, seven days a week, for nearly three years. I'd developed a heart problem after I retired in 1987 and my cardiologist told me to take three pills a day to control my blood pressure, and to exercise.

So far so good. My weight is 13 pounds below what it was when I retired, there is no shortness of breath and my leg muscles give me no problem at all. Also, there has been no reoccurrence of severe knee pain I had for a while when I was loafing around during my first year of retirement. It was arthritis, according to my doctor, and regular exercise is apparently a good thing for old geezers like me. Arthritis, I learned can hurt like being hit by a shovel or a baseball bat.

Naturally, I recall a lot of things about our experiences in the 106th when I am walking in the mall. Some of the guys I walk with are former GIs. We swap war stories, of course. I didn't do anything heroic. But I do te about the bombing raid a lot of us endured at Koblenz, where a huge building some of us were in felt as if it would cave in on top of us. I also like to tell about mining coal south of Berlin at a town called Sandersdorf, the 100-mile march to Limburg and the box-car ride, that was even worse than the march, from Limburg to Stalag IV-B.

A while back another guy and I got talking about our war medals. I have more than I think I deserve, including a Purple Heart for frozen feet, a Bronze Star for nothing in particular, three battle stars and some others. My wife asked me why I didn't have my medals when we saw a display of them in London. My congressman told me how to go about it and after waiting several months, they came in the mail.

The medals are nice to have, though I've only shown them to a few people. Perhaps I really do deserve them. The Army sets the criteria and who am I to argue with the Pentagon?

Whenever I can I put in a good word for the 106th. It's not like bragging up the First Division or Iowa's National Guard outfit, the 34th. But I think just being there, and following orders was an ordeal. If they gave medals for taking crap off sergeants, the way I did from one of them at Camp Atterbury (he's not a member of our association!), I'd also rate a medal for that.

We could have had better leadership at the top of the 106th, in my opinion. There were some excellent sergeants in our company, such as Dick McKee, Carlos Weber, Gene Schmalzried and McAdoo Williamson. Mostly, though, I feel empathy for the buck privates. But not of the point of self-pity.

I'm not really disgruntled. I'm proud to have served in an infantry division up Front. And I'm convinced that all the walking I did with the 106th (the worst of it for me was in Indiana that torrid summer) is paying dividends now in my "Golden Years."

Everyone who served in World War II has experiences to remember.

Few of them did what we did in the 106th, however. Hardly any of them earned the tribute we got from Ike himself, when after a visit to Camp Lucky Strike:

He wrote that we had all "undergone privation beyond the imagination of the normal human."

We, thanks to John Kline and our Association, keep in touch as time goes by.

Being in the 106th hardened me, one way or another, for what was coming the rest of my life \Box .

"It's a book about 'THE BULGE.'
So far all he's written is 'It was a frosty day in December.'"

Berninghaus, Delbert W. 422/C

Rte 1, Box 69 West Bend, IA 50597

I joined the Division six weeks before we shipped out.

I am a farmer. My hobbies, raising wild life, anything is fun. I sing solo at the Lutheran Church in West Bend.

I was in the box-cars, locked in like animals, when we were strafed by American planes. I was the guy who went through a window and unlocked the box-cars so we could form a POW - USA in the snow.

I escaped from the Germans and joined with an American tank outfit. This was later towards the end when we were being marched. I told the tank group where the marching column was. Even though the time we spent as prisoners was only a short time - it felt like it lasted five years.

2505 W. Macon Decatur, IL 62522

Gil Helwig, I was quite surprised to see that The CUB was still being printed. I received an application from A. B. Waters of Duncan Oklahoma, which I have completed and am including a check for the LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

I belonged to the Association from '46 to '59. The last issue I received was #16 for Sept-Oct 1959. was under the impression that it was discontinued. I am copying the forms and sending them to other 106 Signal Company men.

I recently closed up an Automotive Parts business and retired. My wife and I have done a little traveling and enjoy our daughter and family who live nearby.

Robert Boland (106 Signal) and wife and my wife get together on the 16th of December for dinner and reminisce on the Bulge Anniversary.

(Editor's Note - As you now know, The CUB is very much alive. Many of its important and interesting stories have been reprinted in a 496 page book (four color cover 8.5 x 10 inches) entitled The Cub of the Golden Lion Passes in Review. The cost including shipping is $15.00 while the supply lasts. There were 1820 printed and less than 100 are in stock. Many members have ordered extras for family or have placed books in local libraries in memory of buddies or husbands who have passed away.

As you will note in this issue - there are a large number of December Commemoration get-to-gethers throughout the United States. Maybe you and your buddy can attend one of those next year... J. Kline)

Since liberated in 1945 and discharged, I have worked for Becton Dickinson for 36 years. Retired in 1984. I still keep in touch with a few M Company men, Lou Edeleman, Sal DeFelice, Paul Kotlarich, and Ed McGrew. John Kline, our editor, of the 423rd has kept me up to date during the last few years. I am a widower.

(Editors Note - Charlie, you will note that including you there are 3 new "M" Co., 423rd members in this column this time. That makes "M" Company 423rd Regiment, with 33 Association members, the second largest single unit in the Association outside of Headquarters 423rd Regiment who have 34 members. That's fantastic. There were only 7 "M" Company members when I joined in 1987. Nice to see you with us... J. Kline)

Yes, I would like to join the Association. I would also like a copy of the CUB Passes in Review. The money is enclosed.

I was with the Division from Day one, Fort Jackson, Tennessee maneuvers, Camp Atterbury then on to Camp Myles Standish. Then we went overseas on the Aquitania arriving in Scotland then to Banbury Cross where we were supplied with our equipment. We left there to cross the channel via an LST to LeHavre, France then on up to the front lines.

I was a jeep driver for the Exec

Officer, Lt. George Michner. We went on to the Siegfried Line December 2nd 1944. From that point on we somehow made it through the whole deal. A lot of good times and a lot of bad. In July of '45 the list came out and I was on it. We went to Camp Top Hat, Belgium. Left Antwerp the 1st part of August. The war in the Pacific ended when we were one day out of New York. I was home in late August and discharged from Fort Indian Town Gap November 10, 1945.

I heard about the Association through Robert Jerick of Elmira, New York.

He and Brad previously worked with Univac and Uni-Sys. So there you have the Kline men - there has never been a Kline girl since my father's sister (he will be 91 in March). I was in 423/M Co. from the Division's inception in March of 1943 until September of 1944. I left at that time and was assigned to the 37th Infantry Division in the Pacific Theater.

I recently attended a regional reunion of the 423rd and the 81st here in New Jersey at the urging of my good friend Roy Fava, 81st Engineers "C" Company. Although I did not serve overseas with the 106th, I still have many friends and many fond memories of the 106th at Fort Jackson and Camp Atterbury.

(Editor's Note - Vince, as a 423/M man I welcome you along with Jagodzinski and Charlie Caracozza, new members in this column, who were also "M" 423rd men... J. Kline)

I served in the Weapons Platoon both as a mortar gunner and also company driver. Taken prisoner December 19, 1944 and was with a work group in what is now East Germany, the same one that Walter Adams was with. Liberated April 14, 1945 and discharged November 5, 1945 at Camp Hood, Texas.

I went back to Hobart College, graduating June of '47. Was an assistant instructor there (there is no lower title) of Physics at Hobart following graduation. The greatest benefit was free admission to all sporting events. I was with Hamilton & Clark, Inc. at Wilson, New York from 1948 through 1989, the last two years part-time. The firm operated a rather fine furniture store and a funeral home. From 1958 until retirement in 1987 I served as its president and was also the owner.

My principal hobby the past twenty years was flying, having a Commercial License with an Instrument Rating. Lost my physical a couple of years ago, so that is in the past.

My wife Mary and I enjoy traveling and have had many fine trips from coast to coast in our motorhome. This is an activity that we pursue actively.

I have two daughters and a son, and my wife, Mary, has a daughter and a son and between us, nine grandchildren.

I am looking forward to renewing friendships at the next reunion in Pittsburgh.

(Editor's Note - Jack, Thanks for the very nice letter. It seems that is was very popular in the past to connect a furniture store and a funeral parlor. I have a close friend who had the same combination in a small town in Wisconsin. He was also an aviator, flying a small yellow Piper CUB.

In later years when I reached 55 years of age (1980), I just turned 67 on January 10, 1992 - this is the 11th in which I am typing this comment- I took up flying. Earned the same ratings as you and tacked on a Single Engine Land Instructors Rating, although I never practiced in that capacity, except with friends and in the Civil Air Patrol. It's a joy to be above the clouds and I miss it tremendously. Last time I flew was in 1986. I have about 950 hours and at one time owned a Cessna RG-182. Flying got too expensive and when I moved up in the Minneapolis area in 1986 my work also kept me from it. I had a couple of "instrument" experiences that humbled me (the old adage is 'Just because your current, doesn't mean you are sharp'), but we can talk about that another time. Good luck to you and your wife - Travel safely and stay Happy, just like your letter reflects... J. Kline)

My war experiences are somewhat vague at this time, but I do remember setting our machine gun up on a hill and being hit in the right leg with shrapnel, which turned out to be two small pieces in my right thigh. After being captured I remember marching through the city of Koblenz. The bridge over the Rhine was full of holes from bombings. We were put into box-cars for further transportation into Germany.

We were locked in the box-cars and during our trip we parked in a railroad yard and Allied fighter planes strafed us. I don't know how many there were but quite a few were killed and wounded. I spent most of my time as a POW in HALLE Germany. We mostly cleaned up bombed houses and buried civilians.

After being discharged I worked for Oscar Mayer Company for about eight years, then for Roberston Transportation delivering freight in the city of Madison, Wisconsin. I did this for about four years. I then went to work for the University of Wisconsin. I delivered supplies to the dormitories. I did this for 29 years and retired in March 1988.

I have been married to my wife, Ginny, for 45 years. We have fix children and two grandchildren. My health is good except for a heart attack in April 1972 and open heart surgery in 1988.

(Editor's Note - Lawrence sorry I missed you when I delivered The CUB Passes in Review to your home while I was visiting my dad in Madison. My good friend, Gil Helwig, 423/M who is our Membership Chairman, was in Halle - maybe you'll get a chance to exchange some experiences with him. I was inducted Aug 19, 1943 and sent to Camp Davis, North Carolina. The camp was a training area for Anti-Aircraft Artillery. My background as an engineering student and a machinist-toolmaker, I was placed in the instrument section of the Ordinance Support Company. The 298th Ord. AAA was placed in Portsmouth, England on the English Channel.

I landed in OMAHA BEACH in Normandy, France. Due to the lack of German aircraft the 298th was used to unload ammunition ships into ammo dumps etc. Then we operated salvage yards for German and American equipment from the beach and Normandy.

After the breakthrough at St. Lo we patrolled about 20 miles of the Red Ball Highway. We repaired on the spot or towed into our yard and the cargo was transferred to a standby 6x6 and sent on his way. We followed Patton through France, Paris, Chartre, Verdun to St. Michael, where we patrolled the highway from Southern France to the area of the Battle of the Bulge.

In March 1945 being young and single in an older man's outfit I was shipped back to the Atlantic Coast of France to the battered remains of the 106th Infantry Division. The German submarine pocket bases were captured and then we shipped by cattle train to Germany where we searched houses and did occupation duty around Karlsruhe, Germany. We received new young recruits from the States and I trained and taught 60mm Mortar. I was a Sgt of a Mortar Squad of 422/K Co.

The Company was shipped out to the CBI theater except for me and one 2nd Lt. I left Germany in the middle of August 1945 and arrived in New York August 31, 1945 on the QUEEN ELIZABETH. I was discharged at Fort Dix November 17, 1945.

I returned to my father's manufacturing and automotive business and retired January 1, 1991. My four sons are still running the business.

Dear Mr. Kline

I received your letter with other material. I thank you very much. am greatly honored to be accepted as an ASSOCIATE member of the 106th Inf. Div. Association.

Just a few weeks ago I returned from my search trip to Czechoslovakia where I attempted to locate graves of several American infantrymen. I strongly believe I located graves of three men.

I also attempted to find the place where two men from the 106th Infantry Division were killed during a bombing and strafing attack by six Russian aircraft.

This took place on 8 May 1945 near the town of TEPLICE where a small group of former American POW's was marching among the retreating German soldiers and civilians towards American lines near CHEB.

At approximately 1630 hours

Collective graves in Teplice, Czechoslovakia. Any person who has any knowledge of the Russian aircraft attack, please contact MANUEL van EYCK, his phone 818-764-7639 when the small group of approx. 28 nen were near the town of Teplice, six Russian aircraft attacked this section of the highway. During this attack PVT. TONG Y HOM 32654864 of Headquarters Company, 3rd Battalion, 423 Combat Infantry Regiment, 106th Inf. Div. was killed. Pvt Tong was found in a clover field and his back and abdomen had been pierced several times and he must have died instantly.

A short time later men in the group heard some one calling and found PFC CHARLES P. HILL 38385724 who was from Monroe, Louisiana dying from wounds. He was given the best of first aid, but he died about one-half hour later.

Bodies of both American soldiers were left along with many of the Germans who had been killed there too. The remainder of the American group which included THOMAS S. YUKIE and THOMAS BELLI continued in their march and on May 10th reached the first Americans in an area of small village near CHEB, CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THOMAS S YUKIE changed his name to THOMAS S. YUKIC died several years ago in CHICO, CALIF.

In post war search graves of both HILL and TONG were never found. During my stay in the area of TEP-LICE I visited several cemeteries and checked registry books for 1945. In one cemetery I located five collective graves of Germans. I cannot confirm if they were casualties from 8 May 1945. Just as I returned from my trip I received letters from two people who were near the 1945 highway attack and saw the Russian aircraft. One is a women and the second a man. Both described in detail the great panic when the Russian aircraft attacked the retreating German soldiers and civilians.

I was given exact location where this attack occurred and now could receive more positive answers about cemeteries where the casualties were buried. I was told all dead and wounded were hauled away. My search continues and I would greatly appreciate if you could print my letter with a request that men who were members of the:

KOMMANDO B-53 in VILLAGE OF BRANDT-ERBISDORF outside FREIBURG working in the PAUL ROCH SAGERWERKE would contact me and perhaps give me more details about the location of the Russian air attack.

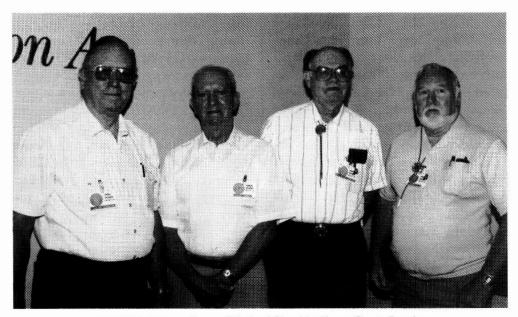

THOMAS BELLI was a member of the 45th DIV (Far Rockway, NY) The roster you sent showed both both men. HILL was 423/HQ. TONG was 423/HQ 3BN.

I am suggestion that members of the 106th Association think about collecting funds for a small metal plaque which would be placed on a tree near the place where both men died. Perhaps something like this:

Golden Lions (badge)

To the Everlasting Memory of PVT TONG Y HOM 32654864 and PFC CHARLES P. HILL 38385724 Killed near-by on 8 May 1945.I myself was born in 1947 and my military service was done with the 101st AIRBORNE DIVISION, 2/501st INF during the Vietnam War. I served in a position as assistant machine gunner.

I thank you very much for your kind help.

On December 7, the day that will live in infamy, stated by President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, former members of the 106th Infantry Division, of the Chicago area, remembered not only December 7, 1941, but also December 16,1944, the first day of the Battle of the Bulge.

We gathered at the Park Ridge VFW Post #3579, to commemorate those days. After cocktails, there was a buffet dinner of chicken and ham, with all the trimmings. Luscious desserts were made by Florence Lucsay, Luella Meagher and Jackie Villwock.

After dinner there was dancing in the post lounge, or just sitting around telling tales of what we are doing now, with after dinner drinks and picture taking. To top of the evening, everyone of the 41 guests received a gift, compliments of the Lucsay's, Meagher's and Villwock's.

As we departed we decided to meet again on December 5, 1992. Happy New Year to All.

Belgian Recalls Bulge,

Sends His Love to "Old Glory" The news of the Supreme Court

The news of the Supreme Court decision declaring it O.K. to burn the United States Flag was received with concern by a native of Belgium. The letter from Andre' MEURISSE of Bullingen, Belgium speaks for itself. It was dated June 1989.

"From someone 'over there,' someone who can't believe it! I'm not American-born and DO regret not being American-born because I really feel to be some one of American fiber is an honor. That's why I believe this statement of mine cannot be considered in any way as interfering in a country's matters.

"Since the tender age of seven, I have always been 103 percent pro-United States citizen of Belgium. I am a lifetime member of the 101st Airborne Division and the 2d Infantry Division Associations, two brave units amongst the bravest U.S. Armed Forces units... the simple addition of their designated unit numbers make me 103 percent pro-United States citizen of Belgium.

"I was born in Bastogne and was wounded in my right shoulder during the 89-day siege of the town by Nazi Germany forces.

"The young and not-so-young Americans at war in that bloody battle that reddened the snow all over the Ardennes region, not only saved my arm from amputation, but restored our freedom; and it is their sons, grandsons and nephews that chiefly contributed to the upholding that by their constant presence behind their flag held high on the peacetime frontline in Western Europe from 1945 to this day.

"You see, for all of us in the Ardennes who suffered from starvation, enslaving action, deportation, bodily persecution, and daily assassinations during four long years, the U.S. Flag was for everyone of us the rightful Christmas Star sending down its warming rays of hope on us poor frightened people moaning in the black and endless hostile night, and will remain for us like a spot of light at the end of a dark-as-night tunnel. Please don't let that light burn out!

"And more precisely about myself; each time when I see an American Flag waving in the wind somewhere, it is always with an immense feeling of fond respect, pride and gratefulness coming up as a big wave from deep inside me that I salute the flag, using this right arm that was taken care of by those brave men and one women (who was identified by VBOB as RUTH PURYEAR, a nurse with the 107th Evacuation Hospital), whose flag was the ever-cherished star-spangled banner.

"The biggest flag I have is an American Flag, because it represents the nation, that in the history of humanity, paid the biggest price in the name of freedom.

"Here in two points is what I think of the madness in interpreting the law.

- 1. Killing, in the name of freedom, the one and only freedom rallying flag on this earth is pure and absolute nonsense!
- "2. The burning of the American flag is the same as doing the enemy's job, and to pass a law legalizing it, sounds to me like a cry of victory from the enemy of my country!

"Now a multiple question:

"Who and where is this unnameable species of people that lives with the advantages included, under the freedom of the Stars and Stripes and wants at the same time to make the burning of the flag legal, regardless of all those who fought, died and endured heavy hardships, and those that still suffer today?

"Why not also burning the Constitution and blowing up the Statute of Liberty?

"What further absurdity will come of this?

"In conclusion, about making legal something that is not moral, I say this:

"USA: Freedom is Your Fame, Liberty is Your Name. "If burning Old Glory become legal, the be sure that it is your FAME and NAME that will burn-out in the process!

"Finally, all I have written is my just and personal opinion. It has to be taken as a whole and means that no part of it may be considered separately."

John, I received the CUB review book. It is very interesting and well put together. You and the others should be congratulated for your good work.

When I first joined the association I thought I belonged to 422/K, but when I looked in the CUB Review and saw names of some of the guys who were killed I realized that I actually was with 422/K Company. Do you have a list of those men in 422/K?

(editor's note - Thanks Armando, I sent you a list in a return letter. Hope you found some men that you remembered, also there is an annual roster included along with this CUB. As to the people who helped with the book --- there is me, three cats and one dog on my editorial staff. The dogs and cats can't type, so that leaves the editor doing all the work. Some people think I have a staff, but I don't. It is all done right here, in my basement, on a computer. The camera ready copy is taken to the printer and he prints the final product from the copy that I give him... My favorite helper is my special cat "Oliver." He was a "throw-away" that Margot bought for $9.95. I wouldn't sell him or a million bucks. Somebody want to make an offer? Thanks Armando... J. Kline)

The POW license plates by states, from the May issue of the POW Bulletin needs to be checked out. There are some changes in some states. Kentucky, I know is not free. You are issued a five (5) year plate for one vehicle, after a payment of twenty-five (25.00) dollars, state fee and two (2) dollars clerk fee each of the five years for service fee...

signed Louis G. Grivetti, Senior Vice Commander, Daniel Boone Chapter, American Ex-POW, department of Kentucky.

(editor's note — Thanks Louis. I have never gotten around to a complete compilation of the Ex-POW license situation. I think I will leave it to the American Ex-Prisoners of War Group....

I became a member in 1990 and I have found The CUB a very interesting publication.

I was in 422/K and I noticed that you were asking about the Combat Infantry Badge. I have included a copy of Colonel Descheneaux and Lt. Col. Joseph Matthews 25 September 45 letters to the men of the 422nd Regiment. There it states that the Infantry and Medical Badges were issued under Letter Order #140.

(editor's note - Thanks Bernard. As you probably have noted, I have received that message from others also. I am pleased that you responded and sent me copies of the two letters written by the Colonel in 1945. You will note that I had reproduced that letter in the CUB Review on page 33 to 37. Order #140 is mentioned on page 35 paragraph 6. The list I am really looking for is the list that each of the 422nd men received their individual letter from. In other words the master list of all the men. The 423rd and 424th were issued in one general order. The 422nd was in individual letters to each person. There has to be a master from which all those names came from. Again thanks!... J. Kline)

Sherod, Arrived home from Huntsville Reunion safe and sound. I forgot to give you the 16 September 1945 edition of "The CUB" Camp Lucky Strike edition. It was donated by Dr. Eugene Rood, an Association member from Green Bay, Wisconsin.

I don't know if I mentioned it, but the Wisconsin Group are holding their 4th Battle of the Bulge meeting December 14th, 1991. Reminder cards are going in the mail this week (24 Sept '91).

I visited Calvin Alexander on Sunday 22, 1991 at Hummana-Shoals Hospital, Muscle Shoals, Alabama. He was in for surgery. He was a member of 422/H. He forgot to pay his dues this year so I am forwarding his dues for him, and I had ordered an extra copy of The CUB Passes in Review and gave him one.

(editor's note — Chuck, if everybody were like you it would be a great world. Nice meeting you at the 45th Annual Reunion... If I get the opportunity I am going to drop in on the Wisconsin December meeting... J. Kline)

(editor's note - Joe, thanks for all the old CUBs and the copy of the March 1983 American Legion magazine which contains Don Underwood's story Death Of The Golden Lion described as, "In December 1944, the 106th Infantry Division lived its short military life stretched between glory and ignominy during 15 battle-scarred days on the Siegfried Line."

I wrote the American Legion asking for permission on reprinted all or parts of the story. As I recall, in trying to trace down Don Underwood I was told that he had passed away. Did any of you 106ers know this man? If so let me know. If you have any his family's address I would appreciate it. Thanks Joe... J. Kline)

The check is for the annual dues of my husband. He was in the 106th, in the Battle of the Bulge and was a POW in Dresden. He lived through the terrible "fire bombing." I kept a diary right afterwards (while in a hospital in Paris) of his experience. We were not aware there was a 106th Association until recently.

(editor's note - Thanks Marilyn for the information. Do you have a copy of the diary. If you like, please send me a copy. We have had inquiries about Dresden and the camp called "Slaughter House Five." As I understand it, not all the POWs were in that camp. There were probably several camps around Dresden. I have had inquiries about "Curt Vonnegut" who was a 106er and who wrote the book "Slaughter House Five." He has never answered any correspondence from our Membership Chairman, Gil Helwig. A recent article appeared about Vonnegut in a Chicago Tribune. This is all interesting and maybe your husband's diary has something that would be revealing about Dresden... J. Kline)

Read pages 125 and 126 of The CUB Passes in Review for information on the BELGIAN FOURRAGERE and the FRENCH CROIX DE GUERRE. The only units eligible were largely while attached to the 7th Armored Division. Those two pages will tell you. It looks as if the 424th was eligible on January 20th, so if I were you I would write the Belgian Embassy in Washington and ask. Maybe some other member will call or write you with more information. If so give me a copy for file... J Kline)

This is the year I wanted to make it to the reunion. But, alas, this is the year that I am State Department Commander of South Carolina's American Ex-Prisoners of War.

I want to take this opportunity to tell you what a fine job you are doing as editor.

Most of my life, following World War II, was devoted to making a living, and it wasn't until I retired from the steel mills of Pennsylvania and moved down here to this golfer's paradise, that I became aware of the 106th Infantry Division Association and the American Ex-Prisoners of War Association. So I am a Johnny-come-lately and the enclosed material may have been used previously. It is Cedric Foster's January 21, 1945 radio address from Boston.

I as a Corporal in 423/D and most of my training was on 81mm mortars. I was interested in your comments about Colonel Cavender. My assignment as a POW was a labor camp on the outskirts of Leipzig. There were about 90 Americans in an old beer hall called Lager 118. I've heard of a few fellows who were there with me, but it would nice to find more.

(editor's note - Congratulations are in order State Ex-POW Commander. I gave up a Jr. Vice-Commander position in the Minnesota Department, primarily because I would have been Commander for the coming year. I just do not have the time to travel, work and do The CUB altogether. I didn't realize which direction I was heading, until one night I said to myself," Kline, what are you doing - you will not be able to do justice to the Commandership." I do maintain a roster and mail address label support with this computer for them. I also attend local get-to-gethers. They are a great group.

Colonel C.C. Cavender's address is 17050 Arnold Street: Air Force Skilled Nursing Unit; Riverside, CA 92502. His telephone number is 714-697-2237. He is 94 years of age (Oct 2, 1991). Has a strong voice and has great love for the 423rd Regiment and his men. He has carried a big load on his shoulders all these years. He is proud of his men and the 106th. If you ask him if he regrets the decision he made in the Ardennes, he will say, "No way Jose - we were put into an untenable position and any alternative would have cost hundreds of lives to no avail." I talk to him about every two weeks. He hasn't many relatives and his mind is sharp as a tack. He can relate vivid instances all the way back to when he was a West Point Lt. in WW ONE! He would appreciate a call from anyone, particularly from a 423rd Regiment man

Yes the Cedric Foster article has been run in The CUB. You will also find it in The CUB Passes in Review on page 242. On page 333 you will see where Cedric Foster was awarded The Order of the Golden Lion Commander Class (Gold). This honor was conferred upon him at the First Reunion of the 106th Infantry Division Association in Indianapolis Indiana on July 16, 1947. For over two months after his original January 21, 1945 broadcast, he mentioned the 106th in each of his broadcasts, even if there were no news. As of Sept 1947 there had been over 10,000 copies of his broadcast distributed... J. Kline)

I am a new member and have enjoyed The CUB.

I joined the 106th out of the Air Force. I was one of those that were waiting for assignment when they shipped us to the 106th. I was a jeep driver for a machine-gun squad, 423/H Company. Robert Bennett was my squad leader. I was captured in the Bulge, then taken to Stalag 9-B at Bad Orb. We arrived Christmas Day and were liberated April 2nd by Patton's Tank Corp. A few days later we flew out of Frankfurt to Camp Lucky Strike.

We sailed home on a Liberty ship and I was sent to Fort Leonardwood, MO. From there to other stations waiting for reassignment, then discharged on November 27, 1945.

I took advantage of the G.I. Bill and went to college - UNI, Cedar Falls and gained my BA in Physical Education. Started teaching and coaching in September of '49. Received my MA degree in PE from Iowa University a couple of years later. I taught in Iowa - High School and Junior High Schools for 37 years, retiring in May of '85.

Enclosed is an article I received from some person about Stalag 9-B.

(editor's note - Nice meeting you at Huntsville Paul. Thanks for the news and particularly for the newspaper article on Stalag 9-B. I have a file (quite large) on POW items. I have a b&w photo of the camp as it appears in the news article. I have intentions, if I can ever get my act together, to devote "one" CUB to those items I have stored away about POW experiences. It just seems that there is so much each quarter that I do not get around to it. I've had enough book writing lately, but I probably have enough material for a small book... J. Kline)

Tweedel, Don R. (Lt.) ASSOCIATE

1300-H Riverwood LN Roswell, GA 30075

(March 23, 1991) Thank you for your recent phone call regarding my father's status and my membership in the Association. Excuse the late reply. I have been on active duty for training with my reserve unit. I am a Lt. in the Air Force Reserve Medical Service, serving as administrator for the 936th Medical Squadron based in New Orleans (7 yrs prior enlisted service).

I joined the Association in my father's name (Merrick J. Tweedel) in recognition of his service in the 106th. My father passed away in Baton Rouge, LA of lung cancer. He was never a member of the 106th Infantry Division Association, but only be cause he never knew about it. My father was extremely proud of his having been a member of the 106th, one of the Golden Lions. He served as a Private First Class, Company L, 422nd Combat Infantry Regiment.

Perhaps it was experiences as a PFC that caused him to push hard for his two sons to become officers. My older brother is a Lt Col in the Army Reserve and is a Vietnam Veteran as a J.A.G. officer (Ron W. Tweedel). I happened to take a while longer to reach that goal.

I am very happy to be an associate member of the 106th Association, and in a small way support the organization, and honor the veterans of the unit and their service. I won't be able to attend Huntsville, but I hope to meet you all next year.

(editor's note - Don, your letter touches me deeply and I am sure it will the others. We 106ers are proud to have you as part of our organization. I only wish that your father would have discovered the Association and had the opportunity to partake of the camaraderie. I just discovered it in 1987. It seems that in the later years of life you awaken to the urge to look back to your youth. The 106th experience left an indelible mark on us, like I am sure any person's military experience does. It is hard to explain to those who have not experienced it, the feeling of meeting some one who you trained and fought with over 45 years ago. True, if you passed one in the street you may not recognize him, but when you huddle together in small groups in some hotel lobby, or at a December 16th get-to-gether, you will recognize him. A glint in the eye, the cut of the chin, his voice etc. Stories flow and tears as well, for there are those who sleep silently that served with us, not only as service members, but Association members as well. We are the survivors and we shall not forget those with whom we served in our military life as well as in later years.

Again, I am proud that you, as a son of a 106er, stepped forward in your father's name. It will be my privilege to some day shake your hand Lt. Tweedel... J. Kline)

(Sept 19, 1991) In another letter from Don:

I appreciate you sending me a copy of your War Diary. I've enjoyed reading it. I still think of the young soldier that was killed trying to get to a pile of sugar beets, just one month before liberation.

The reason for my delayed answer, was because of a recent career, location change. I returned to Baton Rouge, LA after accepting a position as Associate Director of Aviation for the State of Louisiana. It's great to be back in Louisiana.

I missed the food. .

(editor's note - Joe, I have so much material from you, that is very interesting that I must condense it into an article, rather that a Mail Bag item. The story that you wrote about My Brick Factory is something else. Carrying a turkey around in a sack in front of German guards. I assume you are talking about the BRICK FACTORY at Duderstad. Let me know, I'm glad that you have finally found all the 423/M men. They are a great bunch. You mention Paul Kotlarich, Gil Helwig, Robert Stafford, Roy Bigger and the two guys you were closest to, John Hurman and Alexander Jagodzinski. I'll put it all together in another issue. When you see all that I had to deal with in this issue, you will understand. Send me some pictures, if you have them, of you in 1944 and now... J. Kline)

John, as per our telephone conversation, here is a $15.00 check for another copy of The CUB Passes in Review.

The book truly is a marvelous achievement. I plan to send this additional copy to my son, A Major, Field Artillery, who is currently stationed in Brussels, Belgium. It should serve him well as a comprehensive guide for his frequent tours of the area. Looking forward to seeing you in Huntsville. Best Regards

Thanks Colonel... J. Kline)

Your help needed for Camp Atterbury Memorial

Colonel Jorg Stachel, Commander Camp Atterbury, accepting check and a copy of The CUB Passes in Review from 106th Memorial Committe members Roy Bigger, 423/HQ (L) and O. Paul Merz, 422/SV. (R)

O. Paul Merz,the Association representative to the Camp Atterbury Project reports that the Camp Atterbury Memorial is progressing. As of October 1991 he said that they still needed $40,000 to complete the project. The last word I heard was that the 106th Infantry Division was contributing but at a much lower rate than projected. Contracts for the limestone plaques and the fountain for the pond have been let. They will be installed this spring. Your help is needed in this worthy project.

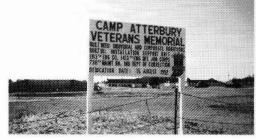

Read the president's comments on page one of this issue.

If you have a copy of the April-May-June 1991 CUB read pages 5 and 6. Send your contributions to Dr. John Robb, whose address is on the inside cover of this CUB, our Memorial Chairman or to the Camp Atterbury Veterans Memorial Committee, Attention; Comptroller Office, Bldg 1, Hospital Rd, Edinburgh, IN 46124-1096. Make the check payable to the Camp Atterbury Veterans Memorial Association.

The following pictures were submitted by O. Paul Merz, 422/SV, our Memorial Representative at the Memorial Site.
