

William Maclins

*Unknown Unit
106th Infantry Division*

7-2-2007 - email from WW2 scrapbook collector. "Private William Maclins. Picture album of a "trip to Europe". Battery B, 791 AAA (a.w.) Bn APO #654c/o new york.

left from Boston; landed in Liverpool, England. After a few months sailed from South Hampton to cross the channel to France.

serial number 36 229 900

inducted at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Basic training at Camp Wallace, Texas. Cadre man, Staff Sgt in supply at Camp Davis, NC. Bivouacked and infiltration course at Camp Stewart, Georgia. refresher for overseas, Camp picket, VA. Transferred to infantry in France in February. 1945, then on thru Belgium and into Germany with the 106th division"

James D. West
jimdw@centurylink.net
www.IndianaMilitary.org