

STARVING YANK PRISONERS FREED

These are some of the 63 emaciated Yanks taken prisoner by Germans during the winter Battle of the Bulge and freed from a German hospital by the 357th Infantry, 90th Division, U. S. Third Army. They are pictured in Marktredwitz, April 21. From front: Pvt. Winfeld Rosenberg, Lititz, Pa., 106th Division; PFC Paul D. Capps, Herrin, Ill., 45th Division; PFC James Watkins, Oakland, Calif., 106th Division; PFC Joseph Gulgno, Waltham, Mass., 106th; Pvt. Alvin L. Abrams, Philadelphia, 28th. (AP Wirephoto From Signal Corps Radio)

1945-04-27 emaciated POWs in German hospital

Clipped By:

criswest

Tue, Nov 14, 2017