

106th Division Sails for Home

By Associated Press

The 106th Division, active in the battle of Ardennes last December, sails today from Le Havre for the United States.

More than 7100 troops are scheduled to dock on the east coast today, aboard nine troopships from Europe.

Ships and army units arriving:

AT NEW YORK—(Aboard Gen. Greeley, originally due tomorrow from Calcutta) 2735 troops including elements of the 5th and 14th Air Forces, the 61st Railway Operating Battalion and five navy personnel. (Aboard James Wetmore) 25 troops, undesignated units. (Aboard Nachman Syrkin) 16 troops, undesignated units. (Aboard Sea Serpent) 17 troops, undesignated units.

AT BOSTON—(Aboard Delaires) 40 troops, undesignated units.

AT NEWPORT NEWS—(Aboard Bret Harte) 428 troops, undesignated units. (Aboard Odoric Bland) 523 troops, including the 601st Ordnance Ammunition Co. 352nd Quartermaster Truck Co. (Aboard Mount Evans) 29 troops, undesignated units. (Aboard Cristobal) 3334 troops including elements of the 99th Infantry Division.

1945-09-25 106th Division Sails for Home

Clipped By:

criswest

Wed, Dec 11, 2019