

106th Division To Visit Atterbury During Reunion

The 106th Infantry division, which was stationed at Camp

Atterbury near Edinburg during the second world war, is holding its 20th annual reunion in Indianapolis today through Sunday.

Let's Clear The Street!

See Page 11

A feature of the reunion will be a return trip to Camp Atterbury at 11 a.m. Saturday.

About 400 veterans are expected to attend the reunion of the division, which is known as the Golden Lion division.

After training at Camp Atterbury, the division was sent to Europe, where shortly after its arrival it bore the brunt of the German offensive at the Battle of the Bulge.

1966_07_21 106th Division to visit Atterbury during Reunion

Clipped By:

jimdwest

Sun, May 14, 2017