THE BUGLE BLOWS AGAIN

Lately, I have had two very interesting conversations with several of you, concerning some of our activity at the next Reunion in Indianapolis. Enough that I would like to expose the ideas to all of you and get some feed-back.

The first discussion was regarding the Reunion activity on Friday evening, September 11. This evening is a trip and dinner at the Beef & Boards Dinner Theatre, bus leaving at 5:45pm. The cost is $60 per person, or $120 for a couple. Thinking expressed was that the tab was a bit high for two for dinner. Can we put something together for our own D/424 group and spend the evening together, reunioneing, if there might be such a word? I would like to put into this, those preferring to go to the dinner theatre should by all means, go that route.

The second thought discussed was a request that on Saturday evening at the banquet, we should all wear our awards and medals, mineatures if you have them, ribbons if you have your medals framed. The individual who brought it up said he had his medals there last year, but decided not to wear them because he saw no one else wearing them. Among other groups, he saw some wearing. I think it's a good idea and encourage all of you to join in and show your pride by wearing your medals at the banquet. Let's show them D/424th was there, and I don't mean just the fellows who were in "The Bulge."

Each year, especially in the past four years, our unit, Company D, 424th has been increasing it's attendance at the annual reunions. For years the attendance was two, maybe three men holding down the fort. Last year, thirteen men with their ladies attended and quite possibly have been fifteen had it not been for unfortunate health situations confronted two members. This year we have a good location, allowing for a number of first timers to attend. We, Company D, 424th could have the single, largest number of members there. I believe!

New members W.G. "Bill" Mize from Mississippi, Leonard Bruenning coming in from St. Louis, Pope John, woops, Gene Greytak coming in from California, Carl Crowder from southern Indiana, Tony Skoda from Chicago Heights, Fred Chermack will join us again, that zealous Clevelander now living in Florida, Steve Varhola added to first one back Alden Russell, early arriver Lee Steele, enthusiastic Bob Landis, ever faithful Bob Homan, brother Glen Parvin, hopefully "our Judge" Walter Bridges, "I'll be there" Russell Satrang and our guy who comes the farthest, Myrton Dickerson and ever Phil Rosenthal. Phil Gerlach and Bernie Sutter haven't commented. And I'll be there also! Who did I overlook?#

1LT MARGARET RUSSELL ...

WE SALUTE YOU

The Bugle proudly salutes one of the Army's proud lady members, 1Lt Margaret (Underwood) Russell, Army Nurse. This fine lady who not only wanted to be a nurse, but had a strong desire to be an Army Nurse. Born and raised in the great state of West Virginia, Margaret received her RN in the spring of 1943 and shortly thereafter, was granted a commission as a Second Lieutenant, Army Nurse Corps.

It was off to Billings General Hospital, Fort Benjamin Harrison, IN where she completed basic training. Her first assignment was Wakeman General Hospital, Camp Atterbury, IN. Life at Wakeman General was interesting, because she not only cared for those army members stationed at Atterbury, but things were happening overseas, and special attention had to be given to the wounded men being returned stateside for medical rehabilitation.

Lt Underwood became Charge Nurse on Orthopedic Ward and much of her time was spent giving special attention to those returning war wounded. It was about that time in 1944 that the 106th Division, on maneuvers in Tennessee, was assigned to Cp Atterbury. A young 1Lt in an infantry regiment was assigned to the advance party from Tennessee to Cp Atterbury.

LEON J LANGLOIS PASSES

Leon J. Langlois, 74, of Manchester, NH, died March 24, 1998, at his home after a period of failing health. Leon was born in Manchester and with the exception of military service, lived his life there. He is survived by his faithful partner and wife, Alma.

Leon was "selected" by his friends and neighbors on March 16, 1943 and soon thereafter was assigned to Company D, 424th Infantry Regiment, 106th Infantry Division and was present for the Division activation at Ft Jackson, SC. He served as a Private, Private First Class, Corporal, Sargent and Staff Sargent all in one year in the Mortar Platoon. He spent his entire military assignment with D/424th with the exception of returning stateside after the war in Europe had ceased, to be discharged.

During the fighting, he was wounded in the stomach and thigh and taken back to a field hospital. At the time he was suffering from three carbuncles and when the medic checked him over, the medic noted on his medical tag that he had "carbuncles." It was never changed and never entered into his records that he had shrapnel wounds, severe enough to keep him confined in a Paris general hospital for over a month. Some years later, his records were among those that were destroyed in a fire, and to his death, he never received the Purple Heart.

Leon is survived by his wife Alma, two sons, Roy G. Langlois and Doctor Stephen L. Langlois and two daughters, Pauline L. Smith and Janet A. Balch; 11 grandchildren and two sisters, Genevieve Cassarino and Virginia T. McCormick.

Leon was a master plumber, working for 40 odd years for various plumbing concerns. He retired in 1984.

Funeral services were held at Phaneuf Funeral Home and burial was in Pine Grove Cemetery.

When notified of his passing, words of admiration poured out from Bob Homan and Frank Koehler and Bob Landis. They served with him in training and combat, and knew the cut that he was. He was a good soldier and a good leader. Frank Koehler and his wife Madeline had the pleasure of visiting the Langlois' in their home in New Hampshire and in a correspondence sent to this writer, an invitation was extended "to all of the boys" to visit them anytime.

SPECIAL NOTE

RE: LEON J. LANGLOIS

Leon had applied for and received his medals and ribbons, EXCEPT the Purple Heart, which he deserved. Somehow, I feel that WE, the members of D/424th, as well as members of The 106th Infantry Division Association can do something to see that "the mountain is moved" and justice will prevail. I know that should we be able to "move the mountain", his wife Alma would be extremely happy.

I'm asking all of you mortar platoon men to do some deep thinking and try to remember anything pertaining to Leon being wounded, anything that we can "hang our hat on" and get something moving to see that the award is made posthumously. There are a lot of politicians out there, just waiting to get their name and picture in newspapers, for the presentation. It was done very recently in my county. If we can put together one, two or three statements, we can move the mountain.

Come on mortarmen, let's pull this off. Lt Anthony Yanalitis, can you do some thinking and possibly get the ball rolling?

IN MEMORIAM

LEON J. LANGLOIS, 1924 - 1998, Staff Sargent, Mortar Platoon, Company D, 424th Combat Infantry Regiment. A resident of Manchester, New Hampshire

LAST MONDAY IN MAY by John T. Bird, Birmingham, AL
We pause to remember those who died

With so much courage,

So much pride.

They'll never come back,

But memories endure

To remind us of freedom: fragile, pure

We're worthy of their sacrifice

If we pause each day

Not just on the last Monday in May.

THE SILENT CORPS

It is a difficult bit of work and a heavy heart when I inform you of the addition of another fellow member of D/424th having been added to the "Silent Corps." Several months ago I had received a letter from Tony Berredo's wife that Tony had passed and I was able to get it into the last issue of The Bugle. About the time I had sent The Bugle to my printer for reproduction, I received another crushing blow, a letter from Alma Langlois that our long time buddy, Leon had passed away. Writing obituaries is a tough assignment, but one I will do because they were so close to us, even though many years have separated us. To Anthony Berredo and to Leon Langlois, I say, Rest in Peace friends.

FRIENDSHIP AND MEMBERSHIP

Within the past few months since the beginning of the year, the former members of Company D, 424th Infantry Regiment have collectively shown their friendship and admiration for other former members of Company D, when they banded together and contributed funds which were used to bring into the 106th Association, sixteen buddies and two relatives of a deceased member.

Once the suggestion was made, there was an outpouring of cooperation and friendship and it was my pleasure to be on the receiving end of your correspondence. The funds contributed, exceeded the amount necessary to bring these people into full membership and so a decision was made to contribute the balance to The Memorial Fund, which was done. About the same time, two newly found former members sent their applications and monies to me along with an Association membership for his wife and they contributed to the Memorial Fund on their own. It was extremely gratifying.

Company D, 424th Regiment now has 39 former members into the association. The loss of Barredo and Langlois in the past few months was difficult. With the gain of Greytak and Crowder, we will climb to 41 members. Having Mrs. Preucel and one of her sons, William as Associate Members is an honor and a privilege.

To those seventeen men who have been brought into full association membership by their former buddies and friends, we extend to each of you a warm welcome. We hope you will accept the membership in the friendly manner in which it has been given. Your membership is good through June 1999. We hope that you will see fit to continue the membership when due. Shortly you will be receiving your first issue of The Cub. It is hoped that you will find it interesting. Each of you are encouraged to participate as much as you wish, encouraged and welcome to attend the Annual Reunions held in rotating cities of the United States.

In December, local reunions are held in cities east to west, north to south. You are encouraged to contact the local representative, if for some reason they fail to contact you for the first time. They are generally held near to the 16th of December, commemorating the first day of the Battle of The Bulge, as well as those who have passed on, joining The Silent Corps.

To you members I would like to say, "Thank you fellows" for your thoughtfulness and generosity. You have extended your hand in friendship to other former members of Company D and I firmly believe that you can all be proud. By membership, we are now one of the largest units in the association. Our attendance last September at the 1997 Reunion in Nashville was certainly one of the largest groups there. So.....to all of you, be proud of yourselves.

I would like to add a few personal words at this point and I hope they make no one angry, but here goes. I like most of you was a draftee and I wasn't happy to go to the infantry. There aren't any of you out there who did more KP than me, thanks to a 1stSgt named MacAlarney and I sure didn't like being a POW. There were a lot of us who didn't really get to know each other, outside our small group. But all of those bad memories of things I didn't like, I can put aside because being associated with you as a group representing Company D, 424th Infantry makes it all worth while. I love you all, thanks fellows.

FOOTLOCKER STUFF

A fine letter was received from Mrs. Ruth Preucel informing me that University Hospital in Philadelphia, where Capt Preucel served, was naming one of their conference rooms in his honor. She was asked to select a portrait of him for the dedication. I asked her in a return letter if she thought it possible to write something for our newsletter, and possibly a snapshot or picture of her with Doctor Preucel's portrait?

I haven't talked with Bernie Sutter lately, but by the time of year, I would suppose that he and wonderful Rozetta have returned from Florida. I do wish her the best of health and to good friend Bernie, I wish you a lot of strength and patience.

Their daughter Sandi (whom I would like to call a God child) and her wonderful husband, Bill Richards, have relocated from beautiful Hershey, PA to of all places, Nashville, TN. Yes Sandi, too late, we were just there.

I haven't been in contact with him, but I'm hoping that Walter Pampus and his wife will be able to put Indianapolis into their September plans, and attend the Reunion. Walter and his wife, were married there after we hit Atterbury from maneuvers. What say Walter?

Frank Koehler has indicated his absence from the 1998 Reunion, I'm sorry to say. We will miss you pal. And Norm and Betty Simmons have indicated the dates conflict with a grandson's wedding, so it appears they may be absent.

It would be nice if Leon Kerns of Bellfontaine, OH could cross the state line and attend. I know that his wife's health puts limitations on his activity. Since the reunion will be pretty close, it would be nice if you could make arrangements Leon.

The letter I received from Bill Domiano was a pleasure. Bill and his wife are giving serious considerations toward a trip from New Jersey to Colorado to visit a daughter and grandchildren. I didn't know until then that Bill had had bypass surgery. Both Bill and his wife battle arthritis and I know very well what they go through each day. I wish you both the best, and for the trip, GO, don't miss those days with your grandchildren.

Bob and Pat Homan didn't journey south to Texas this past winter from Wisconsin. Seems just about the time they were to leave, Pat's mother's health took a downturn and the trip south was eliminated. Pat, I hope your mother is doing better.

Speaking of Bob Homan, as I was, I really admire what he does each December 16th when he throws an "Open House" to any and all Battle of The Bulge men in his area. If it gets much bigger, he'll have to move it to the highschool gymnasium.

And to our two newest members, Leonard Bruenning, third platoon and to W.G. "Bill" Mize, second platoon, who have both indicated their intentions of meeting us in Indianapolis, I say, Thank you fellows, we're looking forward to seeing you."

And I would like to announce the two latest finds to our little group: Gene Greytak of Santa Anna, CA and Carl Crowder, Clarksville, IN. Greytak was in the mortar platoon and while talking to him on the telephone, I believe that he should and could be a very interesting feature for publication. He has agreed. Crowder is having a hard time remembering names and places, but that's OK also. They both have indicated intentions of meeting us in Indianapolis.

Fellows, I think that with a little encouragement of a few others, the D/424 group could hit 20 members at the Reunion. I'm really going to work on you fellows. Hey Walter Bridges

The nurse, army type met the 1Lt, Infantry type, and a relationship began. It wasn't too long though, before the Lt Infantry received orders for overseas assignment, so the relationship continued via the mails.

2Lt Underwood signed up for overseas duty but her supervisor objected and the Chief Nurse put her on as an alternate. Her friend was picked to go and she was devastated knowing that she was being held back. At the last minute, someone on the list got sick and Lt Underwood made it onto the list.

At the time preparations for the invasion of Japan were being made and three General Hospitals were being put together. During this time, 2Lt Underwood was promoted to 1Lt Underwood. After they had arrived at their destination, Tinian, they were informed that their ship had been fired on!

They were on the Island of Tinian, and spent a lot of time relaxing on the beautiful beach. (Was a bathing suit part of a nurse's equipment?) Then the atomic bombs were dropped on Japan and the war came to an end. She was assigned to the 38th Field Hospital and placed on detailed service to the 148th Field Hospital on Saipan.

The war was over, but the hospital still had many wounded. "I remember one of the Japanese POWs who was a medical student telling me "You may have won the war, but we will win the Peace!"

1Lt Margaret Underwood was returned stateside and discharged, and 1Lt Alden Russell, wounded in France, having been returned stateside was recovering. The telephone lines were kept busy, and the mails carried the messages until he had recovered and was discharged. Alden Russell hurried to West Virginia and the two of them were married.

Margaret with Alden have raised four children and like most nurses, never stopped nursing, spending over twenty years from staff nurse to Director of Nursing.

The two Russells attended their first reunion in 1995 in Orlando, FL. It was there in Orlando, when the three of us were having a wonderful "get to know you" conversation that Margaret asked if The Cub ever surveyed the membership's wives to see if any of the wives were also stationed at Cp Atterbury, that she would be interested in contacting them. I posed such an action to John Klein, Editor of The Cub, but as yet nothing has been done from that area. I asked Margaret if she would care to write an article and I would see that it was published. Margaret, we're not anywhere near the size of The Cub, but I hope this starts something.

After that reunion, I believe they are the first ones to make reservations each succeeding year. They are wonderful people to be with. Thank you Margaret M. Underwood Russell for being a nurse and an Army nurse as well. We salute you, mam!#

INDIANAPOLIS REUNIONSEPT

Contact will be made with the the ADAM'S MARK Hotel to see if they can arrange for all D/424 attendees to be located on the same floor and as closely as possible together. Those of you interested in such arrangement as we had last year (only better) please contact me during the month of June, no later. Remember, you must have made your own reservations and then contact me, so that I can give them your name on a list.

and Bob Landis, remember the times you have gone and had to sit by yourselves or in another group? Twenty! Possible?

Speaking of the Homan's NOT going south to Texas for the winter, I haven't heard anything from Mr and Mrs Phil Gerlach as to their making Texas their winter stay last winter.

Phil Rosenthal surprised me with a nice telephone call recently and we had a wonderful conversation. When Phil talks to me, I can see the smile on his face, I know it's there. Phil and his wife Orry have three sons and I know they are as proud of each one as they can be. One of them is a doctor in Canada doing strong research for the Canadian government for AIDS. He has spent a lot of time in Africa working towards a cure. I know you are proud, Phil and Orry.

Spoke with Elly Morris the other day and she informed me that Paul is doing pretty well considering the physical problems. She told me that Paul was out on an errand and doing his own driving on short hauls. Paul, who loved to be on the golf course hasn't undertaken the sport again. I told her she ought to take him to a driving range and let him just hit balls.

And I received a most welcomed call from "our judge," Walter Bridges. Walter told me that he and Barbara have taken an apartment in Houston to continue to be with their daughter who continues to undergo therapy. It has now been almost ten months since her operation and these two wonderful parents have really carried a load. Our prayers are with you Barbara and Walter. Hang in there.

To let you fellows know that I try to keep as current as possible, as I was putting this issue of The Bugle "to bed" I got a phone call from 'ol buddies Burnie and Rozetta Sutter and we talked for at least a half hour. They spent three months in Florida, some sun days, some rain days, but no snow days as they would get in Moline, IL. When they got back, Burnie was given a "hard hat" for overseeing the building a new church building. I asked him if he got his name on the cornerstone as building supervisor? No! And the hardhat was to be a gold one. I suggested that he paint his name on the cornerstone.

As the last entry in this column, I had to travel over to new member, Leonard Bruening's home area for an eye doctor's appointment, so along with my wife, Leonard and I got together for dinner. We had a fine get together which was really an introduction for both of us. Leonard promises, God willing, he will see us in Indianapolis. And that's it folks.
