Mr. Towers,

It was a pleasure to speak to you over the phone the other day & I will be sending you my order for the 119th unit history book by mail very soon. As promised, please see the attached roster for the Anti-Tank Company of the 119th Infantry. My grandfather Daniel Lafayette Pettus was in this company & I request that he is given credit for this list. He passed away in 2000 & I was given this list along with all his military keepsakes of the war which I will always cherish. My grandmother worked at the Pentagon during this time & had the horrible task of helping to notify families of the loss of their sons during the war.

I thank both you & Mr. West for your continuing efforts to document the heroic actions of these brave men so future generations will never forget their sacrifice. Here is a tribute to my grandparents: <http://oldspencermill.com/page6.htm>
God bless you both for your great websites.

PS: Is this man a friend of yours as well? <http://www.oldhickory30th.com/>

Thanks,

"A nation which does not remember what it was yesterday does not know where it is today." / "The education of a man is never completed until he dies" ~ Robert E. Lee

"These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands it now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman." - Thomas Paine

"The democracy will cease to exist when you take it away from those who are willing to work and give it to those who would not." --Thomas Jefferson

The real problem in America is not so much what people don't know but, rather, what they think they know that just ain't so. ~Will Rogers
