ADDENDA

MEMBERSHIP TOTAL of the First Battalion during combat was 2,461 officers and enlisted men, almost triple normal table-of-organization strength at any one time. Totals for the companies were: A, 683; B, 588; C, 676; D, 360; and Headquarters (referring to both Headquarters and Headquarters Company but not to attached Medics), 224.

The First Battalion had 1,686 casualties during 11 months of combat. The total is almost double prescribed strength. A breakdown follows:

	WIA	KIA	POW	MIA	Total
Normandy	255	46	7	3	311
Northern France	314	71	187	26	598
Rhineland I	298	70	21	22	411
Ardenes	196	28	0	1	225
Rhineland II	31	6	1	2	40
Central Europe	85	12	0	4	101
Total	1,179	233	216	58	1,686

Grand totals for the companies were: A, 492; B, 386; C, 518; D, 204; and Headquarters, 86.

IN ITS MEANDERINGS through four European countries during combat, the First Battalion went through hundreds of towns, most of them impossible to pronounce.

A list of those places in or near which the outfit "spent the night" follows. When the battalion traveled all night, the general area in which it happened to be at about midnight is listed. When more than one night was spent in any one place, the date of only the first is listed. All dates occurred between June, 1944, and May, 1945.
