

Maj. Arnold Anderson of Saratoga, expects to arrive in the United States sometime this week, after serving as an executive officer with the 106th Division in the European theater.

Veteran Officer Due in U.S.

Maj. Arnold C. Anderson of Saratoga, now with the 106th Division in Germany, is expected to arrive in the United States this week after spending eight months in the European theater of operations.

Seeing action in Adah and Amchilha in the Aleutian Islands, Major Anderson is the executive officer of the Second Battalion, 422nd Infantry of the division.

He is a graduate of the University of Southern California and before his entrance into service in November, 1940, he held a position with the Southern Pacific Railroad in San Francisco.

His mother, Mrs. Eulalia Anderson, and his wife and daughter, Susan, live in Hayward.

1945-10-04 Maj Arnold Anderson arrives home. XO 422 INF/2 BN

Clipped By:

criswest

Mon, Nov 20, 2017