

Selectees Arriving At Fort Jackson

Columbia, Jan. 21.—Hundreds of selectees from Georgia, Tennessee, North and South Carolina continued today to arrive at Fort Jackson. Today's arrivals totaled 421.

Officers at the Fort said most of the selectees were being assigned to outfits from their home states. These men are part of the 6,000 selectees who have been called from the four states during January and who will be assigned to the 30th division.

During February the eighth division at Fort Jackson will receive about 5,000 selectees.
