

4 SOLDIERS FROM CANTON TO TAKE SPECIAL TRAINING

FORT JACKSON, Jan. 23. (Special)—Four Canton, N. C., soldiers of the 30th Division Signal company have been placed on detached service for the purpose of taking special training.

Private James Russill and Corp. Wayne L. Plott were ordered to report to the Signal Corps school at Fort Monmouth, N. J., before January 26. The specialists' course the soldiers will take will be held from Jan. 26 to April 25.

Corp. Carrol F. Garron and Private Arthur F. Kelyon were also ordered on detached service to First Corps headquarters for training purposes in Columbia, S. C. These men will return to the fort following completion of their training.

The 30th Signal company is from Canton.

1941-01-24 Four soldiers from Canton to take special training

Clipped By:

criswest

Tue, Nov 28, 2017