

16 Atterbury Soldiers Become U.S. Citizens

Columbus, Ind., Jan. 18.—(Special)—Sixteen men from the 30th Division at Camp Atterbury became United States citizens at a naturalization hearing conducted before Judge George W. Long in the Bartholomew Circuit Court today. The men were natives of Germany, Austria, Great Britain, Poland, Finland and Canada.

1944-01-19 16 30th Division soldiers become US citizens

Clipped By:

criswest

Thu, Nov 30, 2017