

30th Division Fights In Magdeburg

Tank destroyers and men of the famous 30th (Old Hickory) division of the U. S. Ninth Army, move through a wreckage-strewn street in Magdeburg, Germany, which was captured April 18. It was in this vicinity that the Yanks first crossed the Elbe river, last water barrier before Berlin. Many of the 30th division soldiers are from the Carolinas, Georgia and Tennessee.—(AP Wirephoto via Radio from Army Signal Corps).
