

30th Division Is To Be Inactivated

COLUMBIA, Nov. 7 — (AP) — The 30th division, with headquarters at nearby Fort Jackson, will be completely inactivated by November 5, its headquarters announced today. The "Old Hickory" division, returned from the European theatre in August, is being considered for reactivation as a national guard unit in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee, states from which it originally was drawn.

1945-11-08 30th Division to be inactivated

Clipped By:

criswest

Sun, Dec 3, 2017