

LONG IDLE DIVISION WILL ENTER SERVICE

COLUMBUS, Ind., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Plans were completed today to entertain at least 25,000 visitors at Camp Atterbury Saturday on the occasion of the reactivation of the 83rd Division.

The parade grounds, where the ceremonies will be held, have been completed.

The 83rd Division, formed at Chillicothe, Ohio, during World War I, has been inactive since the end of that war.

Brig. Gen. Frank W. Milburn, recently appointed to command the division, will conduct the ceremonies to start at 10:30 a. m.

General Milburn will present the division to Lieut. Gen. Ben Lear, Second Army commander.

1942-08-14 Long idle division will enter service

Clipped By:

criswest

Mon, Dec 4, 2017