

83rd Division Reactivated

Twenty five to thirty thousand people were at Camp Atterbury here this morning to witness the re-program at the reactivation of the 83rd. division of which Frank W. Milburn, a native Hoosier, is Commanding General.

Following addresses by Lieut. Gen Lear and Governor Henry F. Schricker, the troops marched in review.

A salute of nineteen guns was given Governor Schricker however the first to receive the gun salute was General Lear who arrived at the camp last evening.

The 83rd. division was originally organized at Camp Sherman, Ohio.

The troops who participated in the review this morning included 600 commissioned officers and 1,200 non-commissioned officers.

Camp Atterbury is opened to visitors until 6 o'clock this evening. Thousands of visitors inspected the barracks, mess halls, recreational buildings, churches, gun ranges etc.

1942-08-15 83rd Division reactivated

Clipped By:

criswest

Mon, Dec 4, 2017