

SOLDIER'S BODY IS SENT EAST

The body of Corp. Morris Braun, technician fourth grade, who was fatally injured Friday night in a traffic accident at Camp Atterbury, has been sent to the East for burial.

Corporal Braun was fatally injured when struck by a truck near 83rd Division headquarters. The truck wheels passed over his abdomen, causing internal injuries.

The flag-covered casket was sent to Brooklyn, N. Y., the soldier's home, where funeral services and burial will be made later this week.

He was the son of Mrs. Ida Braun of Brooklyn and was a member of the 83rd division.
