

Camp Athletic Fund to Benefit from Exhibition

Former College Stars to Be in Lineup of Soldier Team —Diesel Builders After Sixth Victory.

The Camp Atterbury basketball team will come to Columbus tonight to meet the Cummins Cecos in an exhibition game at the high school gym.

Proceeds from the contest will go into the Atterbury athletic equipment fund and sponsors of the game are expecting a big crowd.

In the encounter the Diesels will be bidding for their sixth victory of the season in seven starts.

Outstanding performers with the Soldier team will be Sgt. Jerome Steiner, who played three years with the Butler Bull Dogs, and Lieut. Tom Motter, former Indiana university cager.

Atterbury Players.

Other members of the Atterbury squad and their previous experience follows:

Pvt. Joe Karpinski, 83rd division, four years play at St. Mary's college and one year with Syracuse Central professionals.

Pvt. Dick Hayes, 3479th Ordnance Co., Denver, Colo., Independent A. A. U. ball.

Corp. John Hairston, 1560th Service unit, Columbus, Ohio, Columbus Central H. S., Columbus "Y" Big 5 league.

Corp. Merrill Plummer, 83rd division, Windfall, Ind., four years with Windfall H. S., and two years independent ball with Delphi, Ind.

Pvt. James H. Grant, 39th Evacuation Hospital, Sylva, Miss., three years high school ball.

Corp. Lawrence G. Penale, 39th Evacuation Hospital, three years high school ball.

Pfc. Arthur Abrams, Class A Muny basketball.

Pvt. George M. Dubos, 308th Eng. battalion.

Corp. William Salem, 330th Infantry, Cleveland, high school ball.

Sgt. William H. Crenshaw, 1560th

(Continued on page 7.)

1942-12-17 Camp Athletic Fund to benefit from Exhibition

Clipped By:

criswest

Mon, Dec 4, 2017