

ANOTHER 83RD MAN IS KILLED

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Butler of Route 5 have received word that Cpl. Robert E. Hetrick, formerly stationed at Camp Atterbury with the 83rd Division, was killed April 19 in Germany. The word came from Mrs. Hetrick, who is now employed at the Postoffice department at Washington, D. C.

While Corporal Hetrick was stationed at the camp, he and Mrs. Hetrick had an apartment at the tourist home at Eighth and Brown streets formerly operated by Mr. and Mrs. Butler. Their home was at Hanover, Pa.

Mrs. Hetrick went with her husband from Camp Atterbury to Camp Breckinridge, Ky., and after he left there she returned to her home at Hanover. Later she went to Washington, D. C., to work.

Corporal Hetrick was serving in the 331st Infantry regiment.
